Important Health Warning About Playing Video Games

Photosensitive seizures

A very small percentage of people may experience a seizure when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or patterns that may appear in video games. Even people who have no history of seizures or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause these "photosensitive epileptic seizures" while watching video games.

These seizures may have a variety of symptoms, including lightheadedness, altered vision, eye or face twitching, jerking or shaking of arms or legs, disorientation, confusion, or momentary loss of awareness. Seizures may also cause loss of consciousness or convulsions that can lead to injury from falling down or striking nearby objects.

Immediately stop playing and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents should watch for or ask their children about the above symptoms—children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience these seizures. The risk of photosensitive epileptic seizures may be reduced by taking the following precautions: Sit farther from the screen; use a smaller screen; play in a well-lit room; do not play when you are drowsy or fatigued.

If you or any of your relatives have a history of seizures or epilepsy, consult a doctor before playing.

DEVIL MAN

About 2000 years ago, according to legend, while snow was falling on a clear, freezing night on Earth, a fierce devil prince was born deep in the darkest pit of the netherworld.

Within a short time he gained his full powers and took over the Devil Throne. His first act as ruler of all devils was to declare himself emperor of the Devil Kingdom. His next feat was an invasion of the human world. His plan was to conquer it and rule over both the lower and the upper realms.

But a powerful devil-knight known as Sparda took pity on humans for their brief, transient lives. Leading a rebel force, he defeated all the Devil ruler's armies and finally imprisoned the emperor himself in a sealed vault.

Having achieved his victory, Sparda abandoned the Devil Kingdom to live in the human world. He married a human woman and soon fathered a half devil, half human son. But beware, mankind. After 2000 years, the cursed Devil Emperor will be released and will return to invade the human world once again. Sparda's son must be our protector!

DEMON DANTE

Several thousand years have passed since the Demon Warrior Sparda used his legendary sword for the good of humans and sealed away the demon world...

Dante, with blood from the Demon hero Sparda and a human mother running through his veins, is trying to set up shop in a small corner of town, only to find a gigantic tower rise up out of the earth practically next door.

Standing on the very top of that tower, lit by the faint light of the moon, is his older twin brother Vergil, who had seemingly disappeared from the face of the earth years ago...

...And surrounding him are countless fierce demons!

Although both Dante and Vergil share the same blood of Sparda, they have completely different goals.

And so Dante heads off towards the tower, to settle things once and for all with Vergil.

Meanwhile, the devil hunter Lady is also making her way toward this mysterious tower, with a score of her own to settle.

And so, the wheels of fate start to turn for the humans, demons and men who are both.

DANTE

Dante is a Devil Hunter who fights with his trademark twin handguns and a sword. With the blood of the demon hero Sparda running through his veins, he possesses extraordinary powers beyond those of any human. Though easy-going and always ready to joke, his spirit is steadfast and passionately hates evil. In his soul Dante harbors the strength to carry through with his beliefs no matter what!

VERGIL

Vergil is Dante's twin brother. Just like Dante, he has the blood of Sparda running in his veins. But unlike Dante, he has chosen to follow the path of demons, not humans. Vergil believes power is the ultimate goal. He will stop at nothing to acquire power anywhere and by any means. The polar opposite of Dante, he is cool, calm and collected to the point of being cold and heartless.

ARKHAM

Arkham works closely with Vergil. Although human, he is driven to become a demon.

LADY

Demon Hunter Lady is as fierce as they come! She despises demons and her life's work is to destroy them all. That goes for Dante as well, with half-demon half-human blood coursing through his veins! But first she's out to get Arkham and arrives at the tower, hot on his trail.
